

“European Minimum Wage: Opportunities for a Social Europe”

Monday, February 14th, 2022, 10.00 am

10:30-Round Table: Different perspectives on the EU-Proposal for a Directive on Adequate Minimum Wage

Introduction by Francesco Saraceno, Professor SciencePo, Fellow SEP Luiss

Moderator of the debate Maria Savona, Professor of Applied Economics, Luiss Guido Carli and SPRU, University of Sussex

Participants to the round table:

Giovanna Vallanti, Professor of Macroeconomics, Luiss Guido Carli

Michele Raitano, Professor of Economic Policy, Sapienza Università di Roma

Andrea Salvatori, Labour Economist, OECD

Torsten Müller, Senior Researcher, European Trade Union Institute

Salvatore Marra, Head, European and international policies department, Cgil

Afzal Rahman, Policy Officer, Trades Union Congress

Stefania Rossi, Senior Adviser, Area Lavoro, Welfare e Capitale Umano, Confindustria

Patrizia Luongo, Researcher, Forum Disuguaglianze Diversità

12:00 Q&A

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:00 Networking

14:00 – 15:30 Debate: the impact of adequate minimum wages on in work poverty, gender wage inequality, income inequalities and firms’ competitiveness

Introduced by Paolo Funari, student of the Master in European Economic Governance (MEEG), SEP Luiss

Moderator of the debate Valentina Meliciani, Director SEP Luiss

Students of the Master degree in European Economic Governance, School of European Political Economy, Luiss and of the Master degree in Policies and Governance in Europe, Department of Political Science, Luiss will take part in the debate.